

Families

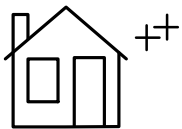

In some families the Mum and Dad live together in the same house.

In some families the Mum and Dad live in different houses.

Sometimes the children live with Mum and sometimes they live with Dad.

The children can still see their Mum and Dad and visit them in different houses and do lovely things together.

Mums and Dads still love their children even if they live in different houses.